

Do you know about or suspect fraud, waste, or abuse involving public behavioral health services? This includes breaking federal, state, or local laws, contracts, or policies.

Report it. Your voice helps protect our community and resources.

OnPoint asks community members, families, staff, and the public to report anything that seems wrong or against the rules. This includes things like:

- Breaking laws or company policies
- Billing issues
- Unprofessional behavior
- Privacy or security concerns
- Conflicts of interest

You can report concerns even if you're not sure. Reports can be made anonymously.
